

Code of Conduct & Workplace Expectations

Effective Date:	[Effective Date]	Approved By:	VP of People & Culture
Version:	4.0	Scope:	Global Enterprise Operations

1. PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT & WORKPLACE ENVIRONMENT

The company maintains a strict commitment to a safe, respectful, inclusive, and professional workplace. Every employee is expected to interact with colleagues, clients, and partners with dignity and professional integrity.

2. ATTENDANCE, AVAILABILITY & CORE HOURS

- Core Hours: Standard availability is expected between 9:00 AM and 3:00 PM local timezone, unless an alternative schedule is approved.
- Punctuality: Employees are expected to arrive on time for scheduled internal and external meetings equipped with necessary materials.
- Absence Notification: Unplanned absences or sick leave must be communicated to immediate supervisors at least 1 hour prior to standard shift start.

3. HARASSMENT & DISCRIMINATION ZERO-TOLERANCE

Harassment, discrimination, or retaliation based on race, color, gender, sexual orientation, religion, age, disability, or veteran status will not be tolerated. Violations lead to immediate disciplinary proceedings up to termination.

Reporting Channels

Employees witnessing or experiencing misconduct are encouraged to report directly to HR, their manager, or anonymously via the Ethics Helpline ([Ethics Helpline Number/Link]).

4. PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINARY FRAMEWORK

Failure to meet conduct or performance expectations will generally follow a progressive disciplinary approach, though severe infractions bypass steps:

- Verbal Counseling & Expectations Alignment
- Written Warning & Performance Improvement Plan (PIP)
- Final Written Warning & Suspension
- Termination of Employment
